

Minnesota Department of Natural Resources
Fish and Wildlife Division presents

Coldwater Fishes of Minnesota Lakes!

Burbot

Cisco

Daphnia

Lake trout

Lake trout are slow growing and can get very old!

Baby zooplankton

Coldwater fishes are very sensitive to environmental changes so we need to conserve their natural habitat!

Coldwater fishes need cold, clean, well oxygenated waters to survive.

Sculpin

Whitefish

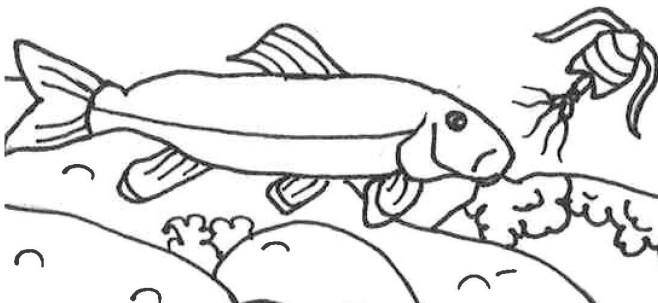

Illustration created by Danielle Kuball

